Information

On 20 November 1954, a lieutenant colonel, two majors, and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank and artillery insignia, and a major with black-bordered red epaulets were observed near the Trost Kaserne in Vienna. Vehicular traffic seen at the installation included trucks [redacted] driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets; and truck [redacted] driven by a soldier with blue-bordered black epaulets and occupied by 26 soldiers with new blue-bordered black epaulets. Seven tank trucks and a truck stood under the lean-to sheds on the training ground south of the Trost Kaserne where an air target installation and a rifle range were also seen. Trucks [redacted] driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets were observed on the training ground. The garages at 97 through 103 Alxinger Strasse apparently were vacant. The installation at 88 Pernersdorfer Strasse consisted of garages which contained 26 motor vehicles including trucks [redacted] lean-to sheds and a repair shop.
